PROHIBS MEET

In National Convention to Nominate a Ticket for This Campaign.

THREE AVOWED CANDIDATES

For the Presidency-Dr. Swallow, the Traducer of Senator Quay, Seems to Have the Lead-Editor of the "New Voice" Also Has Many Supporters.

CHICAGO, June 27 .- The national convention of the Prohibition party met to-day in the First Regiment Armory Sixteenth street and Michigan avenue, or the 1,034 delegates who were entitled to scats in the national convention more than three-fourths were in attendance when Chairman Oliver W. Stewart, of the national executive committee, called and it is expected that by to-morrow, then the nominations for President and vice president will be made, that nearly usand representatives of the party be present to take part in the choosing of the national leaders. Nearly all of the eastern and central western states had full delegations present, the absentees in most instances being from southern and Pacific coast states.

Three Avowed Candidates.

Three avowed candidates for the pres idential nomination are in the field, John G. Woolly, of Chicago, editor of the New Voice and a prominent plat-form advocate of the cause of prohibition: Hule Johnson of Newton, Ill., and Rev. Silas C. Swallow, of Harrisburg, The latter has a high reputation as a pulpit orator and had many supporters among the delegates from the eastern states. Friends of Mr. Woolly expressed themselves as being confident of his nomination on the third or fourth ballot, claiming for him the almost solid support of the Michigan, Wisconsin, Maryland, Missouri and Nebraska delegates, a majority of the votes of the New York, Kansas, California and Ohio delegates and half of the vote of Illinois. Last night Mr. Woolly was also assured of the support of the Delaware delegation, a representative of that delegation asking to be allowed to place Mr. Woolly in nomination. This, according to Mr. Woolly's partisans practically assures him the nomination.

Those Supporting Hale Johnson.

For Hale Johnson, the votes of the North and South Dakota delegations solid, a majority from Minnesota and half of Illinois, besides scattering votes of the New England states, Pennsylvania and Indiana delegations were claimed, Indiana delegates desiring the nomination for President of an presidential boom for Felix F. McWhirter, of Indianapolis.

For vice president, besides Profess McWhirter, Henry B. Metcaif, of Rhode Island; W. B. Witherspoon, of Alabama, and W. W. Smith, of New York, are candidates. The vice presidential nomination, however, probably will be gov erned entirely by the result of the bal-loting for President, the nomination of a western man being almost certain to resulv in the choice of an eastern man for second place on the ticket and vice Prohibs March to the Armory.

Nearly 2,500 Prohibitionists, including delegates to the national convention and to the state convention which met here yesterday, gathered at the Palmer House and marched through the down streets to the First Regiment Armory. Previous to the parade the reception committee had met Joshua Lovering, of Baltimore, prohibition candidnte for the presidency in 1896, who arrived this morning and escorted him to the Palmer House.

It was exactly 10:30 a. m. when Chairman Stewart, of the national commitrapped for order. At that time nearly all the delegates were in their seats while the galleries surrounding the big drill room of the First regiment was filled with spectators. Just previous to the fall of the gavel the dele-gates from the New England states murched into the hull in a body each delegate carrying a canteen with the inverted and bearing the legend "Anti-canteen." They were liberally applauded. After the convention had come to order, Chairman Stewart proceeded to deliver his formal address.

Delivered a Long Address.

Chairman Stewart then introduced Dr. John H. Hill, of Chicago, who delivered a lengthy address of welcome. Several members of the first prohibition convention which was held in Chicago, in 1869, were in the hall, some of them as delegates, and at Dr. Hill's request, they were escorted to the platform.

Chairman Stewart then announced temporary officers as follows:

Chairman, Samuel Dickle, of Michlgan; secretary, A. E. Wilson, Chicago; assistant secretary, Colonel Jellis, Ten nessee, and E. B. Sutton, Idaho.

What Chairman Dickie Said.

Chairman Dickle made a brief speech outlining the work to be done by the We believe the Prohibition party is on the eve of important events," said Mr. Dickie. "We represent a reform before which other national reforms pale into insignificance or disappear altogether. The Democratic party stands for the continuance of the liquor traffic, the Republican party stands for its Mr. Dickie bitterly assailed the national administration for its position on the canteen law and charged it with debauching the peoples of its new postessions in the Philippines."

It is reported that a Scottish inn-keeper once said of the late duke of Argyll: "His grace is in a yerra deeficult posection whatever. His pride of intellect will no' let him associate with men of his ain birth, and his pride of birth will no' let him associate with mer of his ain intellect."

Ex-Governor George W. Peck, of Wisconsin, author of "Peck'sBad Boy," was running a little country weekly in the pineries in the early 60's. It was an unimportant sheet, save for the column of jokes which Peck wrote each week. This department caught the eye of "Brick" Pomeroy, who was then printing his Democrat in La Crosse, Wis. One day Pomeroy wrote to Peck, asking him if he would be willing to go down to La Crosse and work for the Democrat at $25 a week. Three days late Mr. Pomeroy got the following telegram: "I accept your offer quicker than instantly. For heaven's sake, don't withdraw it."

In a recent letter from the front Lieut, Winston Churchill tells the following amusing story of General Hart, whose personal recklessness has been one of the features of General Buller's campaign. On the first day at Spion Kop General Hart discovered a spidler sitting safely behing a rock, and a long way behind the firing line. "Good afternoon my man." he said, in his most nervous, apologetic voice, "what are you doing here?" "Sir," replied the soldier, "an officer told me to stop here." "Oh, why?" "Tm a third-class shot, sir." "Dear me," said the general, after some reflection, "that's an awful pity, because you see you'll have to get extra close to the Boers to do any good. Come with me and Till find you a nice place," and a mournful procession traffplace," and a mournful procession trail ed off toward the most advanced skir

At a certain cloth factory in Scotland, it was the custom to fine the workpeople for turning out bad work. One day a workman bought a piece of cloth to be examined, and the manager found two little holes about an inch apart. He showed these to the man, and demanded a shilling for each hole. "Is it a shilling for each hole?" asked the man. "Yes." said the manager. "And 18 it the same for every hole, big or little?" "Yes, exactly the same." said the manager. "Well, then, I'll save a shilling," and putting his ingers in the holes he quickly made the two into one. At a certain cloth factory in Scotland time?"

"Because I did not hear you till you called the third time," said little Willie. The heart of the mother was pained at this evidence of depravity. For how, she reasoned, could he have distinguished the third call without hearing the second?

"I know it was the third time, mamma." little Willle hastened to explain, "cause you sounded so mad."
She clasped him to her bosom. A boy who could bolster up a poor story with a better one was not doomed to remain in obscurity.

Young Murat Halstead.

Murat Halstead does his daily newspaper work with the cheerfulness and paper work with the cheerfulness and enthusiasm of a beginner in journalism. He explained his youthfulness to-day by saying that he had found a new whisky in Philadelphia. "Rye or Bourbon?" he was asked. "Neither; Seotch. They call it 'Gurlo'. Order it when you want something good." His hearer did order wherever they went to liquidate, but none succeeded in Indiag. liquidate, but none succeeded in the fountain of youth.—New Press.

vance turned generally downwards until the average level had fallen to below that of last night. There was some ir regularity in the movement as among the industrials and railroads, but the tone of the market during the latter part of the day was undeniably heavy The irregularity consisted in the better resistance to the depression offered by some stocks. This was true of the steel stocks and of the coalers, the lat-ter being affected by a good showing of earnings for May by the Erie and the Reading companies, by announcement of an advance in the price of coal by the Reading company and by reports that other companies would follow suit. Some of the soft coal roads were also strong on the good conditions in that trade. But the railroad list as a whole, gravitated downwards quite heavily. The buying demand which was in evidence yesterday and the day before and from which much had been hoped in rallying prices, showed increasing indifference and lassitude the higher level attained. The course of the market was a striking testimony of the dominance of the crop prospects as an influence on prices. London and the European be were all higher on the reports publish-ed abroad of the rescue of the foreign legations by Admiral Seymour's force at Peking and the opening here strong in sympathy. But this and the growing need of money did not avail to hold prices in face of the rally in the wheat market which was accepted by a plain intimation that the reaction in that market was purely technical in its cause and that there was no subsidence of apprehension of extensive damage to the crop. The May state-ment of net earnings of the St. Paul company had a cumulative effect on sentiment in connection with the crop damage reports and all of the grain carrying roads fared badly. Northern Pacific was most affected and showed an extreme decline of nearly two points. Great Northern preferred lost 11/2 net. St. Paul's increase in operating expenses for May of over 27 per cent was a discouraging evidence of the inroads made by higher prices of material upon the cost of operating rallroads. The growing case of the money mar-ket in face of the pending July 1 set-

GHCAGO—Wheat was active and firm, closing 1½c over yesterday. The recovery was due principally to a cessation of liquidation. A big cash business helped corn futures, July finishing the session 1½c improved. Oats closed a shade higher and provisions strong, July pork 52½c, July lard 22½e and July ribs 22½c better.

The liquidation which set in Monday had not quite spent itself last night, and some fag ends of it tumbled into the whent pit at the béginning of business to-day. This, together with some decline in Liverpool cables, caused easiness early. July opened unchanged to ½c up at $2c to $2½c and quickly sold off to $1½c. At this point the liquidation took the form of scattered selling. The demand was excellent from the northwest and the seaboard and sold-out bulls were also active in replenishing their stocks. The remainder of the session consequently, was strong. Compared with recent sessions, trade was quiet. The rally was gradual and the best price was not reached until afternoon, when July perched at $4½c. The bulge brought out profit-secking stuff and a dip to $3½c followed, but the market quickly recovered to $2¾c and closed firm, July 1¾c over yesterday at $3%c. August wheat sold between $2½c and $5%c. closing 1¾sc up at $4¾c. Liverpool following her opening weakness turned strong and was in this way of some influence in the recovery which the recovery which the recovery which The crop situation was not materially changed, according to private messages. There were light rains in the northwest. They were a factor in the dip from 84½c to 83½c, but the recovery which followed this showed the prevalence of the opinion that the northwest crop is practically beyond hope. New York reported forty loads taken for export and there was some export inquiry here. Clearances at the seaboard in wheat and flour were equal to 260,000 bushels, compared with 572,000 bushels last year. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 244 cars, against 351 last week and 491 a year ago. Receipts here were ninety cars, three of contract grade.

Corn did not share in the early weakness of wheat, but readily responded to its later strength. The fear of possible damage to growing corn from excessive best or some other cause was aggravated by reports of extremely high temperatures in parts of Kansas, Oklabone and Missaur. The loss of themen and Missaur.

heat or some other cause was aggra-vated by reports of extremely high temperatures in parts of Kansas, Okla-homa and Missouri. The loss of the hay crop in the northwest and an ex-cellent shipping demand were likewise buil factors. Receipts were 518 cars. Country acceptances were light and Liverpool was strong. July sold be-tween 41%@41½c and 43%c; closed 1%c up sit 42%c.

ket in face of the pending July 1 settlements is an agreeable surprise to the speculative world. Not only do call busing its consular service for gathering information for the use of distillers and brewers.
